

08:00 – 08:30	MORNING COFFEE & REGISTRATION
08:30 – 08:45	Welcome Graham Shaw, Chairman, BCKK
08:45 – 09:00	How KEPSA inputs in trade negotiations with Government and what KEPSA is doing in the context of Brexit Nick Nesbitt, Chairman, KEPSA
09:00 – 09:30	How Kenya fits into the current Brexit process. UK Government position on the Kenya trade deal UK Government VIP Guest
09:30 – 10:00	Kenya's national trade policy and how the Government intends to work with business in forging a new trade and investment partnership with the UK Hon. Adan Mohamed, EGH Cabinet Secretary for Ministry of Industry, Trade and Cooperatives Republic of Kenya
10:00 – 10:15	Q&A
10:45 – 11:15	Is Brexit an opportunity to renegotiate and incorporate emerging priorities of business and government? Dr. Patrick Low, Asia Global Fellows Program Director at the Asia Global Institute. Former Chief Economist at the World Trade Organization (1997 - 2013)
11:15 – 12:00	What current big exporters think a great deal would look like Minimising friction between UK, EU, Kenyan and regional markets Moderated
12:00 – 12:45	New areas of Kenya UK Trade and Investment: Sectors to watch Moderated
12:45 – 13:00	Vote of thanks Farida Abbas, Chief Executive Officer, BCKK
13:00 – 14:00	LUNCHEON