

February Corporate Travel News

British Airways and Great Western Railway Second Anniversary

Two years ago British Airways teamed up with Great Western Railway, one of the UK's major train networks, to offer you free transfers to selected popular destinations when you arrive at London Heathrow.

This great offer means that you can book a complete journey – flights and trains included – through our call centres or your travel agent. Free transfers are available to 11 UK destinations:

First Great Western Train Stations
Bath	Cardiff	Oxford	St Austell
Bristol Parkway	Exeter	Par	Swansea
Bristol Temple Meads	Plymouth	Penzance

Rail tickets are issued by British Airways alongside your flight ticket and include a trip on the Heathrow Express to Paddington.

Please note that free rail transfers are not available to book on ba.com.

Triple Avios Is Back...

If you missed out on our last Triple Avios giveaway, now's the time to sign up for our bumper New Year offer. British Airways is awarding Triple Avios points for travel before 31 March 2017, but only if you register before your journey. Please click the link below to register:

<https://www.britishairways.com/en-gb/executive-club/offers/triple-avios>

...and so is the Advance Purchase Seat Sale

Take advantage of our biggest-ever discounts in Economy class and Premium Economy in 2017 – up to 75% off if you book 3 months in advance. But seats are limited so hurry and book now.